PSG

International Fair

Almost two weeks to go until the Fair and those volunteers heading up the food stalls would really like to hear from parents who can make and donate something delicious on the day. We've always had wonderful food made for our stalls by parents - we know there are plenty of tremendous cooks out there. Your donations can be sweet, savoury: anything goes!

Contact details for the stall holders are given below. Please get in touch with them directly and let them know what you can make that they can sell on the day and that we can all enjoy for our lunch!

❖ Secondhand book & games stall

Boxes will be at both locations on Wednesday 7 June for you to donate your secondhand books, jigsaws and boardgames. We do ask that all donated books are in a decent state, and that board games and jigsaws are complete. We'd love books in all languages for all ages, not just English language books. Jenny & Lucia, who are running the stall, are looking forward to receiving your donations!

❖ Decorated jars

Boxes arrived in classrooms on Tuesday, and will be there until Friday 16 June ready to receive the children's creations. Not only are there prizes for the most fabulous jars, there's also a prize for the class that donates the most decorated jars! This could be a nice weekend activity where your child decorates a clean jar and fills it with small treats and sweets/candy.

Anna, Anna & Darya, who are running the jar stall this year, are looking forward to receiving the jars. The dream is that every child donates a jar - it's a great way for them to be involved with raising funds for their school!

❖ Entertainment

We are incredibly lucky at our school to be surrounded by creative and talented children and we hope you'll all come along to watch them perform! At this year's Fair we will have three Indian group dance performers who have been practising hard with their dance teacher, Preethi. She is, in fact, teaching them online from India! Urso will be joining us with his capoeira group. From 13:30-14:30 there will be live music from Glen Hodgson, part of a band from South Africa called The Parlotones.
