Pokemon Cards

While many of us may have fond memories of collecting cards during our childhoods, and they create a lot of fun social interactions, the growing number of Pokemon cards appearing in school is starting to generate conflict. We would like to take the opportunity to remind you that these should not be brought into school, and saved instead for the home environment.

International Fair NEXT SATURDAY

Just one week to go until the social event of the summer. The weather watchers among us are feeling relatively calm about how it's looking for the day of the Fair. It looks as though it will be a very sunny day and that means we will need our shade tents. I'm asking again for help putting these up. Please email Rosie (rosiecolman01@gmail.com) if you can help. It should take max. 45 mins.

❖ Advanced ticket sales at the Fair

At the Fair all food and activities are paid for using tickets which will be sold at the front gate. No cash will be accepted within the school grounds. To avoid queues on the day you can buy your tickets in advance on Thursday and Friday next week at both locations. We will be selling tickets using QR codes that you scan with your phone. Please look out for us in the playgrounds and take this opportunity to have your tickets in advance and saunter past the queue on the day of the Fair, like a minor celebrity!

To give you an idea of prices for food, drinks & activities... food: €1-€7, candy floss: €2, ice cream: €2, drinks: €1-€4, decorated jars: €2, books: €1-€5, games: €1-€2.

At the Fair we will accept payment for tickets by QR code and cash.

❖ Decorated jars

Boxes are in every classroom for your child to put their jar(s) in. Remember there's a little competition to encourage participation. The class that brings in the most decorated jars will win a prize! Plus there will be prizes for the best decorated jar. Jars can be any size from an average jam jar up to a larger kilner jar. There is no need to buy anything specific; just use one you've got at home. Please do encourage your children to have a go!

❖ Secondhand book & games stall

Boxes for your donations are at each location until Friday 16 June. At Mondrian, boxes are under the stairs near the library and at Rembrandt in the entrance hall. Please take this opportunity to have a little sort through your books, board games & DVDs for we will gladly take them off your hands!

❖ Entertainment

Our talented performers are practising hard and we hope you'll all come along to watch them perform and show your support! On the IPS Hilversum main stage we will have three Indian group dance performances, a capoeira display, The Parlotones (a hugely successful band from South Africa), and... newly confirmed... we have "De Jantjes" with Jan van den Hombergh (father of Elise in Group 7) on violin, and Jan de Witte on accordeon! A packed line-up of talent indeed. Please be sure to come along and enjoy every moment!

❖ Blanket sale

If your child would like to set up a blanket on the grass outside school and sell their own previously-loved toys and games to make a bit of summer holiday money for themselves, they are most welcome. Please let them know this is an option, so they can start to sort through their belongings!
